Service user and carer participation in learning and teaching about mental health: a reading list

This list was compiled for 'Paying more than lip service: user involvement in learning and teaching about mental health in higher education', a one day workshop held in Derby on 20 June 2003, and has been regularly updated since.

This is an evolving list. If you are aware of other useful references please let us know. References are organised into four sections:
1. General (mental health related);
2. Discipline specific (mental health related);
3. Non-mental health related, and
4. Some pointers to guidance on payment to service users
